Former Teacher

Grassroots Coach

Matt has always enjoyed any autonomy in previous job roles and the opportunity to build his own business with the Football Fun Factory was too big a lure to ignore!

Having gained valuable experience as a teacher Matt launched and now operates a thriving FFF community.

His passion for creating opportunities for children in the community where he lives was a massive factor in Matt's decision to become a Football Fun Factory Head Coach.

Matt has really hit the ground running with his FFF franchise and is excited about growing his business further.

I wish the FFF was around when I was a child!
The kids absolutely love the inflatables!
